Description

The Riva Superamerica was the flagship of the fiberglass production of Riva for about 20 years, known and admired throughout the world, was built in 251 units from 1972 to 1992. This Superamerica 45 is kept in excellent condition and completely original, only used in the summer months and then more in a covered storage; different work carried out in recent years and documented: axes and propellers 2013; bow thruster 2014; interiors, mattresses, inverters, batteries, generator and boiler 2016; overhauled engines. We evaluate Riva Corsaro or Riva open trade in.
