Description

The Tritone is the evolution of the Ariston and began as a boat on the high seas, with a hull powerful, safe and fast. Perfect for short cruises to navigate safely, thanks to the twin engines and the capacity of the tanks that allow less than 8 hours of sail. They were built a total of only 258 units and from lines of Tritone born then the Aquarama. This Riva Tritone was built in 1962 and later modified "Aperto" from specialized restorer, it is in excellent condition, in 2013 have been carried out the following works: total polishing, bottom replacement , upholstery replacing; engines replaced in 2001 with the Chrysler 318 8V to 270hp.
